

Following a successful career in consumer goods marketing/product development, Barbara Schnabel decided to leave the hustle and bustle of New York behind and start a new chapter here in Savannah along with her husband Rick. Barbara has enjoyed living the low country lifestyle these past 2 years, taking in the beautiful scenery and wonderful culture.

Retirement was short lived though as she is currently working as a consultant for a company based in Montreal. It is her love of the arts and music that first drew her to ATC. Finding a musical gem like this has been a true joy for her along with meeting some wonderful people. Barbara also enjoys spending time at Tybee, reading, baking and traveling. She is the proud mother of her son Bradley who is Physical Therapist currently living in Ohio.
